August 19, 2022 10:31 AM Eastern Daylight Time

LITTLE RIVER, S.C.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--PCT LTD (OTC Pink: PCTL) August 19, 2022. PCT LTD., operating through its wholly owned operating subsidiary Paradigm Convergence Technologies, Inc (PCT) today announced that it is in the process of segregating their Healthcare and Oil & Gas technologies into separate wholly owned subsidiaries to capitalize on marketing opportunities.

The PCT Healthcare division is being rebranded with assets transferred into 21st Century Healthcare, Inc. while the PCT Oil & Gas division will be rebranded with assets transferred into 21st Century Energy, Inc.

21st Century Healthcare, Inc. intends to build and market equipment and fluids specifically to the healthcare industry.

21st Century Energy, Inc. intends to market oil and gas technologies and services to the Oil & Gas industry.

Both new entities anticipate marketing directly to their customer base and form strategic partnerships with companies that are heavily engaged in both Healthcare and Oil & Gas, respectively.

PCT believes that this will open additional investment and strategic alliance opportunities. PCT has found there is much more opportunity to attract the necessary investment and alliances to assure the funds will be used in the areas of investment interest while each company focuses on their specific market.

PCTL will continue to update our stockholders on events as they occur.
